Light and story

Nordic Light, by Jonas Grundell, is Design House Stockholm's signature candle holder. Its four wooden arms turn on a single steel joint, so they can stand in a row, fan out into a circle, or fold flat when the candles are put away. Shell, designed by Magnus Löfgren in 1993, is a low tealight holder in gold or silver, inspired by old-fashioned mirrored wall sconces.

Elsa Beskow (1874–1953) wrote and illustrated more than 30 picture books and is one of Sweden's best-loved children's book artists. Her flowers, forest children and kindly aunts, from books such as Children of the Forest (1910) and Pelle's New Suit (1912), have been read by generation after generation and still feel fresh today. The mugs and trays carry her original illustrations.
