DROPPLJUS & NISSE

Drop candles, Nisse candles and wooden candlesticks

Made for long winter nights

In Scandinavia, where winter nights are long and dark, candlelight is part of everyday life, and candle making is a craft taken seriously. Droppljus, Swedish for drop candles, are cast in a soft teardrop shape that is as good-looking on the table unlit as it is burning, in two sizes and a wide range of colors. For the holidays, Nisse candles carry the bearded gnome of Scandinavian Christmas. Every candle is 100% stearin with a cotton wick, made in Sweden or Denmark.

To go with them: turned wooden candlesticks in three heights and five colors, wooden bead rings that dress a candle or a napkin, and candle spike plates in gold and silver for styles without a taper base.
