FRIDA

Wood and natural bristle, made to be used every day

Honest brushes for every corner of the home

Frida makes the everyday brushes Swedish homes have always relied on: plain wooden handles, natural-fiber bristles and shapes that have never needed to change. Every brush is made in Europe, in Germany or Sweden, from FSC®-certified wood.

The range covers the kitchen sink, with dish brushes and their replacement heads, long-handled, pot and scrub brushes, and a bottle brush, then the bathroom with nail and bath brushes, and the hall closet with a dustpan set. Simple and sturdy, they look good hanging in plain sight and make an easy add-on next to dishcloths and kitchen textiles.
