KINTOBE

Bags for everyday adventure, made from recycled materials

Carry kindness

Kintobe is a Danish bag brand with roots in Copenhagen streetwear, made for everyday adventure: the commute, the trail, the market and the weekend away. The bags are unisex, practical and comfortable, with adjustable straps for several ways to carry.

Responsibility runs through every part. The body fabric is MIPAN® Regen™ recycled nylon; linings, thread, mesh and zipper tapes are recycled polyester, mostly from post-consumer plastic waste; and the water-repellent finish is fluorocarbon-free (PFAS-free). Recycled materials are GRS certified, production partners are audited by the Fair Wear Foundation, and each bag carries a digital product passport via a QR code on its care label.
