IQAC Report Summary-2023-24

The Internal Quality Assurance Cell played an important role in internalizing quality culture in the institution. Maintaining of the quality culture is achieved by organizing events and programs as per the requirements NAAC for overall development of students and the institution.

The IQAC constituted academic committees for effective coordination and quality enhancement. Among the major activities conducted supervised by the IQAC include:

The Academic Calendar prescribed by RTM Nagpur University, Nagpur was strictly followed with respect to the admission procedure. The merit lists of admitted students were displayed on the board and all the dates of admissions closure, enrolment forms and examination forms were displayed as well as conveyed to the students in their groups.

Our institution's academic planning was prepared following the schedule of dates given in the RTM Nagpur University's academic calendar.

All the HoDs submitted their plan as well as budget to the administrative office well in advance for the smooth functioning work of academic committees

The teaching staff members planned and conducted Bridge Course for the newly admitted students.

The Internal Quality Assurance Cell invited IQAC Coordinator from a reputed institution and organized the guidance for all the teaching as well as non-teaching staff on all Criteria before filling Self Study Report and Institutional Information for Quality Assessment for the preparations of fourth cycle of NAAC.
