A REPORT ON FIELD VISIT

Place of Field Visit : Sevagram (Wardha) and Vinoba Bhave Ashram (Paunar)

Date : 16/03/2024

Participation: Department of Sociology UG and PG Students

Department of Sociology organized field visit to 'Sevagram (Wardha) and Vinoba Bhave Ashram (Paunar)': A Social Project established by Mahatma Gandhi in 1936, at Wardha. Sevagram, previously known as Segaoan, was Gandhiji's home from April 1936 to August 1946. Bapu Kut, Gandhiji's hut at Sevagram, was the center of activities of Gandhiji. It was also witnessed to many historical moments of the freedom struggle of India. Gandhiji stayed from 1936 to 1948 at Sevagram Ashram and carried out all his activities from this ashram during that period.

In April 1936, Gandhiji established his residence in the village Shegaon which he renamed as Sevagram, which means 'village of service'. Gandhiji was 67 years old when he came to Sevagram. From then on, Sevagram has become an inspiring place. Many decisions on important national matters and movements were taken at Sevagram. It became the central place for a number of institutions for the nation building activities devised by Gandhiji to suit the inherent strength of this country.

Vinoba Bhave came to Wardha in 1921 to start a Satyagraha Ashram on the lines of one at Ahmedabad. Jamnalalji had constructed a bungalow at the bank of Dham River at Paunar (9 kms East of Wardha and 6 kms away from Sevagram) for occasional rest during the summer vacation. It was known as Lal Bungalow.

A ramdham Ashram is established by Acharya Vinoba Bhave in the year 1934 on the bank of river Dham in Paunar village five miles away from Wardha. Vinobaji longed for self-realization and left home in search of 'Brahma'. It was initiated by Acharya Vinoba Bhave and helped landless farmers in India. Mid landlords' machinations and peasant rebellions, leaders like Acharya Vinoba Bhave worked peacefully to resolve the issue of land concentration through the Bhoodan Movement.

This field visit was organized by department of Sociology under the able guidance of Prof. R. B. Burile, Head Dept. of Sociology and other two Professors of other colleges.
