About the E-Conference

An idea about CSR has both ethical and philosophical dimensions particularly in India where there is a wide gap between income and standard of living among different sections of society. In the situation of Covid-19 pandemic the Government of India appealed the corporate houses to donate either in the PM cares Fund or for various other purposes that can be contributed for protecting, healing and preventing the common man from the covid-19 pandemic.

Effective CSR gives a company the power to stand out in today's saturated market and connect with customers on a level that ensures long term loyalty and potentially even brand advocacy. CSR activities may not necessarily have violated the letter of law but the spirit of such activities is what is required to be looked on whether CSR activities of the companies have fulfilled the objectives of CSR in real sense or whether the objectives of CSR are fulfilled in reality or whether the transparency is maintained in CSR activities or whether the corporate and NGO partnership has achieved their predetermined targets amid Covid-19 pandemic. Hence the theme of E-Conference is Corporate Social Responsibility: In India, amid Covid-19 pandemic.

It will be wise if the companies focus on areas that the society needs to be paid special attention. The contribution of companies in achieving the sustainable environment goals, basic health care, education and hunger etc. This will in turn ensure universal growth through CSR in the country.
