

PRINT: DISPLAY ADVERTISING

The print edition of Power Transmission Engineering is our most powerful tool for positioning your brand in the marketplace. Our audience of 23,000 dedicated professionals are highly focused in industries and occupations where mechanical motion components are bought, specified and used. Whether your customers are design engineers at OEMs or maintenance professionals in factories and manufacturing facilities, advertising in Power Transmission Engineering helps you guarantee that your products and your brand will be top-of-mind when those decision makers are ready to buy.

About Our Readers

96% of Power Transmission Engineering subscribers recommend, specify or purchase mechanical motion components. So if you sell gears, bearings, gear drives, couplings, motors or other mechanical motion components, PTE is the most concentrated, direct line to your customers available anywhere.
