

NFMW members & their family members who are not covered by NFMW voluntary burial scheme policy will get a 25% cash discount if they bury or cremate with Kgatso Funerals.

Terms and Conditions

The maximum entry age for all plans is 90 years old. Adult dependants will enjoy continued cover after exceeding 90 years of age, provided that the policy premiums are up to date and policy has not lapsed. Children under 21 years old will not be rejected from the policy after reaching 21 years old or 25 years old. There is a 6 months waiting period for natural death and no waiting period for accidental or unnatural death. There is a 12 months waiting period for suicide. The principle of no premium, no cover applies, policyholder must pay their premiums on time and in advance to enjoy cover. A policy will lapse & be canceled automatically after 3 months of non policy premium payments. A policyholder can cover only family members or relatives. At policy inception, a policyholder should cover 5 adults and 5 children.

R400 may be charged for doctors notice of death (Bi1663) documentation if the deceased passed away at home. We may pay up to R1000 for a bus fee and the balance thereof will be borne by the deceased family members.

There is a free repatriation benefit only within the South African borders. Children under 7 years old only qualifies for a coffin or casket, hearse, death certificate, basic motuary services, coffin/casket trolley, screen at home and graveside decoration. The maximum payout claims on our policies per deceased is R100 000. All claims expire after 6 months. The deceased family can either choose the burial service or a cash payout as illustrated.
