OPICHI

Capabilities statement

BUSINESS SUMMARY 01 / 06

Opichi is an AI consultancy and software development firm dedicated to making AI technology function exactly as intended. By partnering directly with institutional stakeholders and frontline staff, our team identifies the specific bottlenecks and procedural friction points within an organization. We develop precise AI-driven tools designed to resolve underlying data integrity issues and transform fragmented source material into actionable insights.

VALUES AND MISSION 02 / 06

To create human-in-the-lead AI-powered software that enhances the day-to-day experience of staff and customers. AI should not replace humans, rather AI should reduce the strain and hours of menial labor to enable more human-to-human connection, job growth, and organizational satisfaction.
