Metal stud plate for use with perless single stud arms

Peerless WSP701 monitor mount accessory:

No matter what, having more options is a good thing. The WSP700 and WSP701 wall plates provide more options for mounting Peerless’ small, single stud pivot and articulating mounts. In addition to use with metal studs, the wall plate enables the positioning of the TV practically anywhere across the span of the wall without being limited by gaps between wall studs. Easily open up flat panel mounting options, get an abundance of usable wall access for even better cable management options. Designed sleeker and with less bulk than previous wall plates, the WSP700 and WSP701 are a universal fit that is easily mounted to any wall stud, regardless of the stud spacing situation.
