Anglo Pacific International prides itself on offering the best possible moving service to you the customer. Our staff are skilled and professionals whose judgment can be relied upon when moving our clients' vehicles.

We take the greatest of care when shipping your vehicle, taking all necessary precautions to ensure your vehicle is protected during the transit process.

In instances of shipping motor vehicles that have batteries, we will not be held liable under our Marine Insurance Policy or our own terms of liability for any form of damage or failure in any way of the battery and any associated systems that fail as a result, however caused.

We would be grateful if you could sign below to confirm that you accept that during the shipping process it may be inevitable that the battery may not function upon reconnection at destination.

We are required under Special Provision 961 of the IMDG Code Amendment 35 to disconnect the battery within your vehicle prior to shipping – please indicate the location of the battery at the time of delivery of the vehicle and any process tools required.
